214. In India the difference in the accounts as compared with Budget is +2,453,1 and is composed chiefly of two items—(1) An increase of provincial Balances by 1,519,8, against an estimated decrease by 707,0; (2) The 715,2 received by the Famine Commissioners for reduction of debt, according to a procedure not settled at the time of the estimates. The first of these is explained under the head of "Provincial Surplus" (Section M above). The second necessarily comes as a gross receipt under this head, because the charges taken against it being discharge of permanent debt are shewn under that section.

215. In the English accounts the difference +701,9 lies chiefly in the treatment of the English contribution for the Afghan War. In the Budget we expected to bring to credit 3,000,0 made up of the actual receipts of 500,0 from the English Exchequer and 2,500,0 charged per contra to a suspense account, as explained in last year's report. But as 695,0 of this last were taken into the accounts of 1880-81, the net charge under this section fell short by that amount.

216. There have been during the year vast credits to advances in the Military Department, namely, about 1,000,0, being the amount originally debited under that head but really representing unaudited expenditure. These are prevented from appearing in this final account as a net credit because of the per contra entry we make in debiting advances and crediting expenditure for the adjustment of the unaudited expenditure under "Army."

218. Most of the Railways shew smaller receipts in India than estimated, which, as the receipts mostly mean transfers to credit of Capital for stores held on Capital account, and issued for Revenue consumption, indicate less expenditure than anticipated in Budget.

The English figures are the difference between receipts of capital from the Companies concerned, and issues for expenditure, chiefly in procuring stores, paying establishment and occasionally paying off debentures. The final figures differed from the estimate chiefly by an extra receipt of 200,0 on account of the Oudh and Rohilkund Railway.

219. These figures all practically shew the outstandings in account. None of them are of any importance, except the figures against Post Office, Military and Public Works. The first of these is the result of a write-back of 65,0, wrongly credited in 1880-81. The figure against Military means that the Military accounts have during the year brought up their account of receipts from the Civil Department, by 202,1, but the amount by which they were in arrear was already taken into account in 1880-81, by charging off a certain amount as unaudited expenditure.

220. The Public Works figure is thus explained. The cheques of the Public Works Department, which were outstanding on March 31st, 1881, amounted to 384,8, but they were then kept under a special Suspense account, in the section of Advances and Deposits. The account was however, in the course of the year, transferred to the account between Civil and Public Works Department, and thus we have in that account the excess credits representing cheques, outstanding on March 31st, 1882, without having the debits on account of cheques outstanding on March 31st, 1881, and paid in 1881-82. Public Works expenditure was very active in March, and the outstanding cheques have been ascertained to be at least 581,7. The rest of the credit was expected as the net transactions between the departments in 1880-81 was a debit of 139,1; but the account is being investigated in detail, and in fact the change of procedure regarding cheques, above alluded to, is one of the preparations for that investigation.

SECTION U.—SECRETARY OF STATE'S BILLS.

221. The amount estimated for in the Budget was £17,200,0, being Rs. 20,640,000 at Exchange 20d. The actual drawings exceeded this by £1,212,4, the excess being due chiefly to the strong demand for Bills at the end of the year, which the flourishing state of the Indian Treasuries rendered it advisable to meet as far as possible.

The Bills drawn during the year are thus arranged by month of allotment:—

|              |       | £        | Rs.       | Rate inpence. |

222. The result, in the accounts, better on the whole than the Budget by over four millions (4,165.0), is attributable chiefly to—

|  | Balance,Better. | Balance,Worse. |
|--|---------------------|--------------------|
| Imperial surplus of the year increased from 855.0 to 2,582.7                               | 1,727.7             |                    |

| Amount set apart for reduction of debt, not utilized . . . . .                             | 541.1               |                    |
| Total . . . . .  | 5,666.6             | 2,000.0            |
| Net increase explained out of 4,165.0 . . . . .  | 3,666.6             |                    |

So that a number of smaller differences explain the remaining increase of half a million.

EXAMINATION FOR CLERKS IN THE ESTABLISHMENTS OF
THE SECRETARIATS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

No. 380—390<sup>10</sup>.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Home Department (Public),—under date Fort William, the 12th March 1883.

READ the undermentioned papers on the subject of the examination in the clerical establishments of the Secretariat Offices of the Government of India and the Departments directly attached thereto :—

Home Department Resolution No. 31—1298-1303, dated 31st August 1882.

Home Department Notification No. 1836, dated 24th November 1882.

Letter from the Officiating Secretary to the Board of Examiners, No. 29, dated 21st February 1883, and enclosed list of candidates who appeared at the examination held in January 1883 and the number of marks gained by them.

Reports by the Examiners and by the Registrar to the Calcutta University on the Papers set and the results of the Examination.

R E S O L U T I O N .

THE Governor General in Council regrets to learn that, although 43 candidates presented themselves for Examination for Clerkships in the Upper Division and 157 for Clerkships in the Lower Division, no candidate has succeeded in passing for the Upper and only two for the Lower Division.

2. The Registrar of the University, to whom the selection of Examiners and supervision of the Examination papers was entrusted, reports that, in his opinion, the standard set for the Upper Division was not higher than that of the ordinary B. A. Examination, while the standard for the Lower Division was about equal to that of the F. A. Examination. The character of the papers was, however, designedly different from those usually set at the University Examinations, being shaped to test intelligence rather than acquirements.

3. It appears to be the general opinion of the Examiners that the class of candidates which came forward was not, taken as a whole, equal to that which presents itself at the University Examinations. It may be hoped that as the intention of Government to adhere to the system of filling up vacancies in its offices by competitive examination becomes better known, well educated young men will be more ready to avail themselves of the door thus opened for them into the public service.

4. The most discouraging feature in the Examination was the inability of the great majority of the candidates to draft a proper letter, or make anything like an intelligent précis of official correspondence. These are subjects that no doubt are only to be thoroughly mastered by daily practice, but more might be done in schools to impart at least the elements of letter-drafting and précis-writing.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE GAZETTE OF INDIA, MARCH 17, 1883. 667

5. While accepting the opinion of the Examiners as to the character of the papers set, the Governor General in Council is of opinion that the style and scope of the Examination may in some respects be open to re-consideration. This is a matter to which early attention will be given. Any revised rules that may be adopted will be published so as to give ample time for their study by all intending candidates.

6. The list of candidates with their marks will now be printed and circulated to the Heads of the Offices interested in the examinations, in order that appointments may be found without delay for the two candidates who have passed for the Lower Division. No appointment should be made to that Division in any office until it has been ascertained that these candidates are provided for. For the rest it is considered desirable that Heads of Offices should be at liberty to fill up existing vacancies by selecting from the list those candidates who have done well in several subjects, though they failed to pass the tests completely. This will, however, be a matter entirely within the discretion of the Heads of Offices. Meantime the orders in the Home Department Resolution No. 31—1298-1308, dated the 31st August 1882, restricting the power of appointing outsiders without examination and of promoting clerks from the Lower to the Upper Division, must for the current year remain temporarily in abeyance. But no clerk should be admitted or promoted without some sort of departmental examination as a test of efficiency.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution (with a copy of the list referred to) be forwarded for information and guidance to the several Departments of the Government of India and to the Heads of Offices under the Home Department noted on the margin, and that the Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION.

PROGRESS OF INDIAN RAILWAYS DURING THE YEAR 1882-83.

No. 251 R.C., dated Fort William, 13th March 1883.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Read again—

Public Works Department Resolution No. 171 R. C., dated 22nd February 1883.

OBSERVATIONS.—The Resolution now read again dealt with the Administration Report of Indian Railways for the year 1881-82, and set forth in brief and general terms the progress in construction and traffic working of railways during that year. Now that the official year 1882-83 is about to close, a short review of railway administration during the last twelve months may prove of some interest. General results may be seen from the following figures:—

|                       | END OF YEAR |          | Increase. |
|-----------------------|-------------|----------|-----------|
|                       | 1881-82.    | 1882-83. |           |
|                       | Miles.      | Miles.   |           |
| Lines open to traffic | 9,961       | 10,251   | 290       |
| " under construction  | 1,302       | 2,332    | 1,030     |
| TOTAL SANCTIONED      | 11,263      | 12,583   | 1,320     |

Of the length now under construction it is anticipated that at least 719 miles will be opened for traffic during the year 1883-84.

2. Although the financial results of traffic working during the financial year are not yet known with exactness, they can be foreseen very approximately, and it is estimated that (excluding lines in Native States for which figures are not available) they will be—

|                  | R            |
|------------------|--------------|
| Gross receipts   | 15,97,28,000 |
| Working expenses | 8,57,10,500  |
| NET RECEIPTS     | 7,40,17,500  |

These net receipts will give an average return on the capital cost (including the cost of stores, &c., in suspense) of all open lines of 5·07 per cent.

3. The following railway projects have been taken up by Private Companies:—

|                               | Length undertaken.                                |

RESOLUTION.—The Governor General in Council has perused these remarks with much interest, and observes that the length of railways open to traffic has doubled during the last ten years, and that, notwithstanding the large addition of comparatively new lines on which the traffic cannot as yet be fully developed, the financial returns are very satisfactory. The general improvement is most encouraging, and indicates that, with care in the selection of route, economical but substantial construction, and careful management of working, railway enterprize in India will become extremely profitable.

2. The commencement which has already been made by private enterprize is satisfactory, and His Excellency in Council feels sure that it is only necessary for the merits of this class of investment to become more fully known to attract sufficient capital for the construction of an additional three or four thousand miles of railway communications.

ORDER.—Ordered, that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India, and that copies be forwarded to the Secretary of State.

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and the Punjab, Public Works Department.

The Chief Commissioners, Central Provinces, Assam and British Burma, Public Works Department.

The Resident at Hyderabad, Public Works Department.

The Agents to the Governor General for Rajputana, Central India, and Baluchistan, Public Works Department.

The Director General of Railways.

The Accountant General, Public Works Department.

The Consulting Engineers to the Government of India for Guaranteed Railways at Calcutta, Lahore and Lucknow.

Ordered also, that this Resolution be communicated to the Governments and Officers marginally noted for information.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

REVENUE AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR
THE WEEK ENDING THE 18th MARCH 1888.

GENERAL REMARKS.—The prospects of the rabi harvest are good in every district of the Punjab, excepting Umballa, where the outturn is expected to be below the average; a little rain has fallen in most districts. In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh there has been heavy rain in the northern tracts, and all districts have reported rainy or stormy weather; the rabi harvest has commenced and prospects are fairly good, though the crops have been somewhat injured in most districts by hail, blight or insects. In Bengal there has been a little rain in several parts, and some damage has been done to the standing rabi crops and to the mango and mahua blossoms; on the other hand, the rain has been generally very good for the ploughing of fields and for the sowing of the aus rice crops; prospects of the spring rice are generally very promising, and harvesting of rabi crops and sugarcane is progressing satisfactorily.

In the Central India and Rajputana States some rain has fallen in several parts, and crop prospects, though good, have been slightly injured in a few places by cold, wet, cloudy weather and high winds. In the Central Provinces there have been hail-storms and rain; harvesting of rabi crops is progressing and prospects are favourable.

In the Bombay Presidency the harvest has been completed in some districts, and is in progress in others. So also in Berar. In the Nizam's Territories, the slight rain which fell has partially injured the rabi and melon crops. In Mysore standing crops are in good condition, paddy has been harvested in parts; slight rain occurred in several districts. In Coorg threshing of rice has been completed, and rain has proved beneficial for the coffee blossom.

In the Madras Presidency some rain occurred in several districts; standing crops in a few places are suffering from insects and deficiency of moisture, but on the whole, they are in fair condition; harvest operations are in progress in all districts.

The reports from British Burmah make no mention of crops; some showers are reported from three districts. In Assam two districts report rain; ploughing and sowing of aus lands have commenced; mustard is being gathered and sugarcane pressed.

REVENUE REPORT OF IRRIGATION WORKS IN THE NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES FOR 1881-82.

No. 96—110 I., dated Fort William, the 18th March 1883.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Public Works Department.

Read—

Letter from the Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, No. 635 I., dated 7th March 1883, and enclosure, being the Revenue Report of Irrigation Works in the North-Western Provinces for 1881-82, and a Resolution of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor reviewing the report.

OBSERVATIONS.—The Resolution of the Local Government reviews very fully the results of the year 1881-82, and shows to what an extremely satisfactory position the Irrigation Works of the North-Western Provinces have attained. The net revenue returned 6·13 per cent. on all capital invested up to the end of the year, while the Productive Works returned from 28 $\frac{1}{2}$  to 31 $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent. on the Capital expenditure incurred upon them.

2. The irrigated area exceeded the largest area previously attained by 179,298 acres. The irrigation of indigo exceeded the area of 1880-81 by 124,626 acres or 61 per cent., and although it is stated that this extraordinary increase has been detrimental to the extension of the growth of sugarcane, the irrigation of the latter crop increased by 29,526 acres, or 21·8 per cent. over that of the previous year. The area of wheat irrigation increased also from 545,651 acres in 1880-81 to 727,428 acres in 1881-82, or 33·3 per cent. The total area of "rabi" crops irrigated during 1881-82 exceeded that of the previous year by 177,815 acres, or 17 $\frac{1}{2}$  per cent., and although this large increase was mainly due to the early cessation of the autumn and the entire failure of the winter rains, still the marked increase in the irrigation of the better classes of both spring and autumn crops points unmistakeably to a great increase in the prosperity of the cultivating community. The increase in the area of double cropped land, from 13½ per cent. of the total area irrigated during 1880-81, to 18½ per cent. in 1881-82, is, however, to be regretted unless these lands are manured.

8. The irrigating duty done and water-rate earned by each cubic foot per second of water entering the canal head were as follows :—

| Canal         | 1881-82. |     | 1880-81. |     | 1879-80. |     | 1878-79. |     |

The steadiness of the duty and value of water obtained on the old established Eastern Jumna Canal is remarkable, and the Agra Canal appears to be gradually improving in these matters.

4. The maintenance charges are given below for each of the four main canals and for the whole area irrigated :—

| Whole area    | 1.06                                       | 1.10     |

5. The gross receipts under the head of Navigation amounted to R 29,512, and the net revenue to R 5,870 during 1881-82 against R 31,649, and R 5,721, the gross and net revenue of 1880-81.

6. The cost of collecting the canal revenue, R 3.06 per cent. on the gross collections, including all charges, is very moderate, and the nominal balance remaining to be collected at the end of the year (R 1,386 out of a net demand of R 47,57,271 on account of occupiers' and owners' rates) is extremely satisfactory.

7. The Government of India has much pleasure in noticing that careful observations are being made on the effect of drainage in checking the spread of "reh" and in keeping down the spring level of canal irrigated land, and that extended experiments are to be made on the reclamation of "reh" infected lands by the establishment of plantations.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this Resolution, and of the Report and Resolution by the Local Government, be forwarded to the Secretary of State, and to the Finance and Commerce and Revenue and Agricultural Departments of the Government of India for information.

Also, that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to the Government of

The Governments of Madras, Bombay, Bengal, and the Punjab.

The Chief Commissioners, Central Provinces, British Burma, and Assam.

The Resident at Hyderabad.

The Agents to the Governor General, Central India and Rajputana.

for information, and to the Foreign Department of the Government of Mysore.

Also, that this Resolution, and the Resolution of the Local Government, be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India.

RESOLUTION—By His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, North-Western Provinces and Oudh.

READ—

Chief Engineer's (Irrigation Works) Revenue Report for the year ending 31st March 1882.

RESOLUTION.—The capital expenditure on Irrigation Works in the North-Western Provinces during the year under review was R16,24,785, of which a sum of R1,72,844 was expended on the Betwa Canal—a "Famine Protective" work chargeable to Imperial Funds. The total outlay on Capital Account to the end of 1881-82 was R6,65,84,271, viz. :—

2. The gross assessment of the year, including R9,49,631, the share of enhanced land revenue due to Canals, was R61,09,073; the working expenses, R20,26,323, and the net revenue R40,82,750, or 6·13 per cent. on the capital invested in "Productive" and "Minor" Irrigation Works and Surveys, and also on Famine Protective Works, or excluding the latter 6·16 per cent. The interest charges on capital (which during the year was reduced from 4½ to 4 per cent.) was R24,53,561; and deducting this amount from the net revenue, the assessments of the year exhibit a clear surplus of R16,29,189 after paying expenses under all heads. In the previous year the surplus was R8,58,645 and in 1879-80 R2,57,267.

3. The total interest charges from the commencement of irrigation operations (on the Eastern Jumna Canal) in 1830 to the end of 1881-82 amounted to R4,49,36,060, and the total net receipts realized during the same period to R3,77,66,938. Thus the accumulated balance of interest charges remaining unpaid at the end of the year was R71,69,122. The balance in 1880-81 was R84,08,747 and in 1879-80 R87,61,041.

4. The actual direct income collected in 1881-82, which includes part of the assessment of the previous and the uncollected balances of past years, amounted to R57,42,154. Of this sum R9,49,631 was realised on account of share of land revenue due to canals, and R45,27,608 was on account of occupier's rate. The balance remaining to be collected at the end of the year after remissions amounting to R2,664 was only R1,316. The outstanding balance at the commencement of the year was R87,544. With the exception of a small sum of R159, the whole of this amount was realised in 1881-82. The demand under owner's rate amounted to R2,33,591, of which R2,33,257 were collected and R264 remitted, leaving an uncollected balance of R70. The outstanding balance from 1880-81 was R14,720, the whole of which was collected.

After paying all expenses, including the heavy interest charge of R24,53,561, the actual surplus of net receipts amounted to R12,62,270, less an adjustment of R22,645 on account of owner's rate collected by the Civil Department in past years, leaving a balance of R12,39,625; by which amount the balance of interest charges for 1880-81, mentioned in preceding para., has been reduced.

In the previous year the net surplus receipts were R3,52,297, and in 1879-80 R9,22,889; but as pointed out at the time this latter amount was unusually high, as it included the collections for "rabi," 1878-79, a year of drought.

5. The working expenses, which include maintenance and improvement of works, establishment, tools and plant, refunds, and leave and pension allowances, are compared below:—

| Year.   | R         |
|---------|-----------|
| 1879-80 | 18,39,611 |
| 1880-81 | 19,06,112 |
| 1881-82 | 20,26,323 |

There has been a decrease of R25,506 on maintenance, but an increase of R22,734 on account of leave and pension allowances, and of R 1,22,983 for establishment. This latter increase, however, is more apparent than real, and is due chiefly to the capital outlay being R5,35,750 less than that in 1880-81, and to the rapid expansion of irrigation; thus throwing a considerable portion of the charges for establishment, formerly debited to Capital, on to Revenue. As a matter of fact, the percentage of establishment on direct assessments and maintenance of works, is nearly the same in 1881-82 as in 1880-81, viz., 16.80 per cent. against 16 per cent. In 1879-80 this charge was 24.10 per cent., but a large decrease in establishment, amounting to R2,17,106, took place in the succeeding year, thus reducing the percentage to that shown above.

The cost incurred by the Civil Department in collecting the canal water-rate was R1,32,240, which amount includes all charges, viz.:—

|   | R |
|---|----------|
| Patwaris' fees . . . . .                  | 20,352   |
| Lamardars' fees . . . . .                 | 1,04,595 |
| Establishment and contingencies . . . . . | 7,293    |
|   | <hr/>    |
| TOTAL . . . . .                           | 1,32,240 |

or 3.06 per cent. on the gross collections. The cost in 1880-81 was only given for the Upper Ganges Canal where the percentage was 3.30. There is no information as regards previous years.

6. The area irrigated in 1881-82 was 1,915,949 acres, against 1,732,696 acres in 1880-81, and 1,400,405 acres in 1879-80. The largest area hitherto recorded was in the excessively dry year of 1878-79, when 1,736,651 acres were watered. On the Upper and Lower Ganges alone 7,301 villages were supplied with water in 1881-82 from 29,248 separate outlets. In the previous year these numbers were 5,926 and 24,339 respectively. This increase of 1,375 new irrigating villages during the year is due almost entirely to the extension of the distributing system on the Lower Ganges Canal, which although being rapidly developed will not be finally completed for some years.

7. The principal irrigated crops, with their acreage, weight of produce, and value are shown in the subjoined table:—

| No. | Name of crop.    | Acres.  | Produce in maunds. | Value in rupees. |
|-----|------------------|---------|--------------------|------------------|
| 1   | Wheat            | 727,430 | 91,66,123          | 2,60,70,987      |
| 2   | Indigo           | 319,627 | 79,907             | 63,92,640        |
| 3   | Barley           | 261,687 | 34,67,402          | 72,64,139        |

| 7   | Pulses           | 82,374  | 7,41,366           | 15,84,641        |
| 8   | Cotton           | 64,162  | 3,84,972           | 14,28,780        |

The total value of crops raised with canal water was R6,06,25,647. In 1880-81 the value was R5,60,95,157, and in 1879-80, R4,96,35,163.

The average water-rate per acre irrigated was—

|                               |   | 2.42 whole year. |

8. The results brought out in the above review of the entire system of irrigation works in the North-Western Provinces are very satisfactory; and an analysis of the financial condition of the four Productive Works shows that they are on a sound basis.

9. The Upper Ganges Canal, which commenced irrigating in 1856, has a length of 445 miles of main line and 2,548 miles of distributaries. The capital outlay on it to the end of the year was R2,73,93,062. The net profits and percentage on this outlay for the last six years are exhibited below:—

| Year.             | Net profits. | Percentage. |
|-------------------|--------------|-------------|
|                   | R            |             |
| 1876-77 . . . . . | 18,58,355    | 6.29        |
| 1877-78 . . . . . | 21,94,179    | 7.18        |
| 1878-79 . . . . . | 26,92,664    | 8.54        |
| 1879-80 . . . . . | 20,12,627    | 6.18        |
| 1880-81 . . . . . | 14,00,777    | 5.14        |
| 1881-82 . . . . . | 17,58,631    | 6.40        |

The apparent decrease in 1880-81 and 1881-82 is caused only by the transfer in the former year of the Cawnpore and Etawah Branches from the Upper to the Lower Ganges Canal.

10. The Lower Ganges Canal has at present 531 miles of main line and 1,628 miles of distributaries, leaving about 900 miles still to be completed.

The capital outlay on the works has been R2,49,07,925; and the net profits and percentage since the opening of the canal in 1879 are as follows:—

| Year.             | Net profits. | Percentage. |
|-------------------|--------------|-------------|
|                   | R            |             |
| 1878-79 . . . . . | 33,845       | 0.23        |
| 1879-80 . . . . . | 46,622       | 0.28        |
| 1880-81 . . . . . | 10,57,124    | 4.58        |
| 1881-82 . . . . . | 11,82,646    | 4.75        |

The sudden increase in 1880-81 was caused chiefly, as explained above, by the transfer of the two terminal divisions of the Upper Canal.

11. The Agra Canal opened in 1874 has a length of 140 miles of main canal, but as yet only 348 miles of distributaries. The capital outlay to the end of 1881-82 was R84,66,394, and the net profits and percentage—

| Year.             | Net profits. | Percentage. |
|-------------------|--------------|-------------|
|                   | R            |             |
| 1876-77 . . . . . | 30,150       | 0.39        |
| 1877-78 . . . . . | 2,74,015     | 3.40        |
| 1878-79 . . . . . | 2,39,351     | 2.94        |
| 1879-80 . . . . . | —23,994      | —0.28       |
| 1880-81 . . . . . | 2,65,001     | 3.15        |
| 1881-82 . . . . . | 2,94,749     | 3.48        |

The distributing system of this canal is still incomplete. When the full allowance of distributaries as on other canals is provided, it is anticipated that a return of 6 per cent. of direct revenue will be realised on the capital.

12. The Eastern Jumna Canal is 130 miles in length, with 618 miles of distributaries. The canal was originally constructed in the 17th century during the reign of Shah Jahan, and was restored and re-opened by the British Government in 1830. The capital outlay on it, R28,43,257, therefore, includes only the cost of restorations and distributaries.

The net profits and percentage were—

13. The Minor Irrigation Works are the Rohilkhand, Bijnor, and Dún Canals, and the Bundelkhand Lakes.

The capital outlay on the Rohilkhand Canals to the end of 1881-82 was R15,88,763. Including direct and indirect revenue as on other canals, the income was R1,17,280 or R29 less than the working expenses. The annual interest charge at debit of the canal was R63,550; there was therefore a distinct loss on these works; which in one form or another have been in existence for upwards of 60 years, but which are obliged to be maintained owing to the large amount of land revenue dependent on them. The water-rate charged is very low, amounting on an average to less than 8 annas an acre for the whole year.

The capital account of the Bijnor Canals was R69,966, and the net profits during the year R9,978, or 14 per cent. on the capital.

The capital of the Dún Canals was R6,37,142 and net revenue R28,815 (or 4.52 per cent.), which more than covers the interest charge of R24,895.

R82,916 had been expended up to the end of 1881-82 on the Bundelkhand Lakes; the net profit during the year was R2,446, which does not cover the interest of R 2,995 charged on the capital.

14. The following table shows the net profits and percentage on total capital outlay (including Productive, Minor, Famine, and Survey Works) of all the Irrigation Works in the North-Western Provinces, including the indirect return or the enhanced land revenue due to canals. The table also shows the net profits and percentage of direct returns, i.e., water-rate and miscellaneous revenue on account of navigation receipts, water-power, &c.:—

15. The receipts for navigation amounted during the year to R29,512; water-power realised R57,860; plantations, R1,10,597; and miscellaneous items, R87,815. The operations under "Navigation" and "Plantations" will be reviewed in their separate reports.

16. As regards the question of the rise in the spring level of water in wells owing to the introduction of canals, the only data as yet obtained are on the Agra Canal. These show that within the last four years the spring level has been raised 5.70 feet in a width of 1,500 feet on either bank, and 4.60 in a similar width, extending up to 3,000 feet from the canal. In the western depression a natural hollow which runs at a lower level than, and parallel to, the canal at an average distance of three miles, the rise is so inappreciable that it has been determined to postpone the construction of the drainage cut originally estimated for, on the supposition that there might possibly be a sensible rise of spring level. Surface percolation has shown itself in excess on the upper portion of the Lower Ganges Canal, where it runs in heavy embankment through the lowlying valley of the river. The damaged land has been taken up by the Irrigation Department, and drainage cuts are being made, and other remedial measures adopted as usual.

The number of miles of drainage cuts actually constructed up to end of 1881-82 were—

|                               | Miles. | Per mile of Canal. |
|-------------------------------|--------|--------------------|
| Upper Ganges Canal . . . . .  | 850    | 1·90               |
| Lower Ganges Canal . . . . .  | 252    | .47                |
| Agra Canal . . . . .          | 10     | .06                |
| Eastern Jumna Canal . . . . . | 261    | 2·00               |

Complaints have been made on the Upper Ganges and Eastern Jumna Canals that the country is being overdrained, and that the pasture lands are suffering in consequence. More drainage cuts will undoubtedly have to be constructed in certain places, but it will be necessary to act with caution, so as to avoid any possible damage, as is now alleged to occur, to pasture lands.

17. With the exception of a few parganas where the returns had to be sent back for explanation, a map has been prepared by the Department of Agriculture and Commerce, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, showing the extent of "úsar" in every village of the Duáb and in a part of Rohilkhand. Elaborate measurements have been made by the same department in 65 villages in the Akrabad pargana, at the lower end of the Upper Ganges Canal, with the view of ascertaining whether "reh" is increasing. The Director reports that "the change, if any, is very slow, and trustworthy results cannot be expected from the measurements of only a few years."

The officer of the Department of Agriculture and Commerce in charge of the Agricultural experiments in connection with the deterioration of soil by "reh," &c., states that in consequence of the plantations at Sikandara Rao, on the Upper Ganges Canal, having shown that where canal water and silt were available a "kikar" plantation could be raised in bad "úsar," it was decided to recommend the preservation of a large area of "úsar" land for arboricultural purposes, and to limit operations to land irrigable from canals. A previous experiment had shown that the system of watering by hand was too expensive, and that the young trees did not thrive so well as when canal water was used.

It is further added that, "although it does not appear that flooding land with canal water, and leaving it to be absorbed by the soil, or evaporated, does much good to bad 'úsar,' considerable benefit results from allowing water carrying silt to flow over the ground, so that the silt may be deposited. There are some small plots of 'úsar' between a new channel and the Etawah Branch of the Ganges Canal, which a year ago were covered with efflorescence, but are now covered with silt, with dub grass growing on it."

18. Silting operations were first commenced on the Eastern Jumna Canal by the officers of the Irrigation Department in 1855; since which time these works have been continuously carried on. It is, however, only within the last ten years that funds have been freely allotted for the vigorous prosecution of these important reclamations on all the main canals.

As a general rule, the work has been confined to the land within canal boundaries, although in some cases outside tracts have thus been reclaimed and brought under cultivation.

There are now many miles of the canals covered with fine plantations of trees, some of which are upwards of twenty years old, grown on these silt banks; as also some acres of thriving wheat crops growing on the spots which four or five years previously were barren úsar.

ORDER.—Ordered that the above Resolution be submitted to the Government of India for information, and that it be published in North-Western Provinces and Oudh Gazette.

Ordered also, that it be circulated as usual to other Governments and Departments.

THROUGH RATES FOR GRAINS FROM DELHI AND AGRA TO CALCUTTA AND BOMBAY.

No. 162 R. T., dated Fort William, the 2nd March 1883.

From—COLONEL W. S. TREVOR, R.E., Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department,
To—The Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Public Works Department.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letters specified in the
 No. 1476, dated 22nd July 1882.
 No. 2056, " 20th October 1882.
 margin, communicating the views of the Government of Bombay, and forwarding communications from the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and the Agent, Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, on the subject of through rates for grain from Delhi and Agra to Calcutta and Bombay.

2. As the questions involved in a due consideration of this subject are of not merely individual, but general, application, His Excellency the Governor General in Council considers it necessary to take the present opportunity of explaining fully the principles according to which, in the opinion of the Government of India, Railway rates and fares should be regulated. This course is the more desirable in view of the probable extension of Railway enterprise in India with a minimum of State support and control, and of the need of some assurance to the promoters and proprietary of such private lines in respect of the attitude which will be assumed by the State towards them.

3. As regards rates in general, the fundamental aim of the management of a Railway obviously should be to attract the maximum quantity of traffic the line can carry, at the best rates obtainable. These rates must be determined in each case. All rates will be in one sense special, though they may be capable of classification into groups, and each rate will depend on what the article will bear, what quantity of it is obtainable, and what is the approximate cost of hauling it. In other words, as correctly remarked in your letter under reply, "the cost of carriage is one of the limits within which rates may vary, the tax which the trade will bear being the other." But, in determining any particular rate, the whole circumstances of the traffic must be considered, the empty as well as the full running, the intermissions according to season, if any, and the competition, if any, of other modes of conveyance. Hence, though every rate must contribute to the general remunerativeness of the line as a whole, more profit may accrue out of one rate than another, a particular rate may be remunerative only indirectly, by filling rolling stock which would otherwise inevitably run empty in one direction, or, in other words, it may yield less than the average cost of carrying a unit of goods.

4. Two points of importance in working on such principles may here be incidentally mentioned. The theory of equal mileage rates, whether compulsory or not, has been repeatedly condemned by competent authorities—by the Royal Commission of 1867, the Joint Committee of 1872, and Mr. Ashley's Committee of 1881—while telescopic rates, that is, rates varying inversely as the distance, are recognized as legitimate in all cases where the favored traffic would be lost without such rates, and as financially feasible, owing to the lower proportionate cost of the longer lead.

5. Under conditions perfectly simple, where one Railway alone commands a province or given area, the proprietors obtain, under management such as has been described, the full advantage of their monopoly, the full possible amount of profit on their capital, except in so far as the State may interpose in the interest of the public, as, for instance, for the purpose of fixing maxima fares and rates for the conveyance of the poorer classes of passengers and of indispensable articles, such as salt, coal and food grains. The public and trade, on the other hand, not unfrequently suffer severely in the cost to them of Railway accommodation, even where rates may not be so excessive as to check materially, or to extinguish, its profitable use. But where there is no monopoly, and competition of other Railways or modes of transit has to be faced, the basis on which calculation of rates must proceed is materially changed. Capital cost of construction, gradients, cost of fuel and carrying capacity may, indeed, be borne in mind as elements affecting the profit earned, but the rates must eventually be governed, not by any arbitrary standard of profit to which it is thought fair to attain, but by the necessity of attracting traffic to the line. The Railway which has, for whatever reason, cost most to construct, or which has the steepest gradients, or the dearest fuel, or other natural disadvantage in comparison with its rival, will necessarily go to the wall, and suffer in dividend—possibly so far as to do little more than cover its working expenses. From this follows, moreover, that in any case when through traffic passes over more than one Railway, and the different administrations do not mutually agree upon any other method, the receipts from such traffic should be divided according to mileage run.

6. It may next be considered whether these principles of action in cases where competition exists are affected by the State being either the proprietor, or vested with a certain interest in and control over one or more of the conflicting Railways. Clearly, they are not. The State ought not, and often could not, interfere to redress the inequalities of nature, of construction, or of management, and to put all upon a theoretically fair and equal footing. It cannot legitimately make a common purse among its Railways in order to support one at the expense of another, or still less, to drive an independent competitor from the field. Rival routes must be left alone, each to get the highest traffic it can upon the principles above set forth. The net result will be the greatest aggregate of traffic upon all combined which is consistent with a profit, the maximum of accommodation to traders and the public, and of gain to both producers and consumers, and the highest possible development of the resources of the country. Under only one class of circumstances will the State be justified in using such influence as it may in any case possess, namely, where competitive rates are unreasonably or unnecessarily lowered through either ignorance, recklessness, or idle rivalry, on the one hand, or the indifference which the security of a Government guarantee may induce, on the other.

7. From the preceding observations it will have been perceived that His Excellency the Governor General in Council, while recognizing the soundness of many of the views which have been put forward by His Excellency the Governor of Bombay in Council, by the Chamber of Commerce, or the Agent, Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, is unable to meet the wish that the rate for grain traffic by the Calcutta route should be arbitrarily fixed by Government at the same amount as the rate via Rajputana, or at a lower amount proportioned so as to equalise the cost of coal. His Excellency in Council prefers to adopt the alternative recommendation of the Bombay Government in your letter under reply—"That a minimum rate should be fixed for the Bombay route, without reference to the East Indian charge."

8. What the rate on the Rajputana Railway ought to be, in accordance

| For grain booked through. | BarodaRailwaycharge. | RajputanaRailwaycharge. | TOTAL     |           |
|---------------------------|------------------------------|---------------------------------|-----------|-----------|
|                           |                              |                                 | As.P. | As.P. |
| From Delhi . . . .        | 4 6                          | 9 0                             | 13        | 6         |
| " Agra . . . .            | 4 11                         | 8 9                             | 13        | 5         |
| " Bandikui . . . .        | 4 10                         | 8 2                             | 13        | 0         |
| " Ajinere . . . .         | 6 0                          | 6 7                             | 12        | 7         |
| " Chitrasani . . . .      | 6 0                          | 2 10                            | 9         | 4         | with the general principles enunciated, may next be examined. The rates per maund actually in force are those shown marginally. His Excellency the Governor General considers that there is reason to believe that a rate considerably lower would more than cover the outlay incurred in the particular case, and might possibly even yield a greater sum as net profit, through the larger dealings which may be expected. A reduction would thus be desirable, on sound commercial principles, irrespective of what might be the article concerned. But in this case strong additional reasons for such a course may be derived from the fact that the reduction will be in favor of grain for export, chiefly wheat. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is strongly impressed with the ability of India to furnish a much larger share than she now does of the vast quantity of this commodity required in Europe, and is determined that no legitimate efforts on the part of the State shall be wanting for the purpose of securing it. Independently of the direct gains from an increased aggregate of paying traffic, which have been mentioned in para. 6, the very important effects of an increase of exports upon the rate of exchange, and the reflex chain of advantages indirectly produced thereby, cannot be overlooked.

9. His Excellency the Governor General in Council is accordingly prepared to concur in a reduction of the through rates between Delhi and Bombay to 11 annas for wheat and 11½ annas for other grains and seeds of the same class, other stations being treated proportionally, the Rajputana A class scale being applied, and the proceeds divided according to mileage. This rate is apportioned between the Rajputana and Baroda Railways on the mileage principle, and it will be shaded off, for stations south of those named, on the principle, already applied, of giving greater favor to the longer leads. The opportunity may also be taken to abolish the restriction of the minimum load to which the through rates will apply. If the Agent, Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, consents to these reductions, the necessary month's notice may be issued at once, and the Manager, Rajputana-Malwa Railway, informed by telegraph accordingly. Finally, in full concurrence with the representation contained in the letter dated 12th April 1882, from the Secretary to the Bombay Chamber of Commerce, as to the prejudicial effects of frequent changes and uncertainty, it seems desirable that the rates should be maintained until the 31st March 1884, any alteration which experience may shew to be necessary after that date being notified to the public not less than two months previously.

10. If the Agent of the East Indian Railway considers that any change in the existing rates for grain or coal, or as to the restriction of minimum loads, would now be desirable, His Excellency the Governor General in Council will be prepared to give full consideration to any proposals he may submit.

11. While thus disposing of the particular case under reference, His Excellency the Governor General in Council desires to take this opportunity of making publicly known the principles upon which the Government of India will be guided generally in dealing with Railway rates. Subject to interposition such as has been described in para. 6, His Excellency in Council considers that Agents and Managers of Railways may, subject to general rules which will be communicated hereafter, be left as free as possible to fix, upon these principles, such rates as may seem most advantageous for their respective lines. To adopt the words of an able and exhaustive essay on the subject by Mr. T. H. Farrer—

"They may not be able to say exactly what is the cost and profit of each particular transaction; what is its share in the Capital account or in the expense of working; just as a manufacturer cannot say what is the exact cost of each parcel of goods he sends out. But they know generally whether a particular traffic brings them in a profit or not, and if it does not, they soon find out the truth, and cease to carry it."—The Portnighly Review, August, 1882.

All Agents and Managers will now be invited to examine carefully their rates with the view of seeing how far they may be capable of modification, and especially, whether the rates on grain and other leading articles of export might not be reduced with advantage. The coaching traffic, and especially the fares for 3rd class passengers, might also be re-considered in the same sense.

12. In conclusion, I am to draw general attention to the fact that every expansion of the export trade will bring to bear a heavier strain upon the facilities for handling, warehousing, removing, and shipping produce at the Railway Stations and Ports. These facilities are believed to be even now in many cases inadequate, and their improvement will, His Excellency the Governor General in Council trusts, engage the serious attention of the several local authorities at an early date.

PROCEDURE REGULATING THE SUBMISSION BY PUBLIC BODIES OF ADDRESSES TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India, in the Home Department (Public),—No. 12—408-424, under date, Fort William, the 16th March 1883.

RESOLUTION.

Inconvenience having been found to result in some cases from the absence of any distinct rules regulating the submission by public bodies of addresses to the Government of India, the Governor General in Council considers it desirable to prescribe a procedure for general observance.

* Letter to British Indian Association, Calcutta, No. 2001 of 31st October 1872.

The following rules are in accordance with principles laid down by the Government* of India in 1872:—

I.—An address, the sole or principal object of which is to promote or oppose a measure of Imperial legislation, or one which bears immediately upon general questions of Imperial policy, may be submitted direct to the Governor General in Council.

II.—When the object of an address is to induce the Governor General to give his assent to, or to withhold his assent from, a law passed by a Provincial Legislature, it should be transmitted through the Local Government concerned.

III.—An address intended to obtain the reversal of an executive act, or one which bears directly upon the executive action of a Local Government, should be transmitted through the Local Government in respect of whose action complaint is made. This procedure should be followed in all cases in which the jurisdiction to be exercised by the Government of India is of an appellate character or necessarily involves a reference to the Local Government.

IV.—In the case of an address relating to a law passed by a Provincial Legislature, it will be convenient that a copy of the address should simultaneously be sent to the Governor General. In other cases it will be at the option of the writers to send direct to the Government of India duplicates of representations submitted to the Local Government.

ORDER.—Ordered, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR
THE WEEK ENDING THE 20th MARCH 1883.

GENERAL REMARKS.—Slight rain is reported in most districts of the Madras Presidency, also in Sind and the Southern Mahratta Country of the Bombay Presidency. In Bengal, the North-Western Provinces, and the Punjab hot settled weather with westerly winds has generally set in, though a few local falls of rain and hail are reported. The same applies to the Central Provinces, Rajputana, and the Central India States. In Mysore and Coorg timely showers have benefited the e-fice bloom.

Agricultural prospects continue generally favourable. Throughout Northern India the rabi harvest is rapidly progressing, and in Southern India it has been completed. In Bengal the poppy and mustard crops will probably be short, owing to the heavy winter rains, and other crops have here and also in the North-Western Provinces partially suffered from the same cause. Hailstorms also have done serious injury in many places throughout India, both to the standing crops and to the mango and maha blossom. Sugarcane planting is everywhere in progress, and in Bengal jute and early rice is being sown. Prices show a slight tendency to fall. The public health is generally good.

REVENUE AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR THE WEEK ENDING THE 3rd APRIL 1883.

GENERAL REMARKS.—During the week under report there has been slight rain in most districts of the Punjab, in two or three districts of Central and Eastern Bengal, in Assam, and in South Coorg. Light showers also fell in three districts of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, in two districts of the Madras Presidency, and at Bhopal. Elsewhere there has been no rain to report, and dry, hot weather has generally set in.

In the Madras Presidency cotton, sugarcane, and dry grains are still being harvested, and general prospects are good. In the Bombay Presidency the rabi harvest is generally over. In the Punjab crops are ripening and harvest prospects are good, except in Umballa, where the rabi is expected to be below the average. In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh the rabi crops are either being cut or have been harvested in most districts, and prospects are generally good. In the Central Provinces the harvest is almost completed, and threshing is well in hand. In Bengal the rabi harvest is still progressing generally with a fair outturn; the crops on the ground are doing well, though in North Bengal and in a few other parts rain is said to be much wanted. From Burma the reports of the paddy crop are favourable. In Berar the threshing of rabi has been completed, while in the Nizam's territories the rabi crops are still being reaped. In the Central India States and in Rajputana the rabi crop has been generally a good one, and prospects are favourable.

IRRIGATIONS OPERATION OF THE NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES FOR THE KHARIF SEASON 1882-83.

No. 618 L, dated Camp, 3rd March 1883.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of the N.-W. P. and Oudh.

Read—

Statements A, B, and C—15, showing irrigation operations for kharif, 1882-83, of canals in the North-Western Provinces.

OBSERVATIONS.—The kharif season of 1882-83 (from 1st April to 30th September 1882) was not very favorable for canal irrigation owing to the early setting in of the rains. In the beginning of June heavy rain fell in almost all districts, but the break in September caused a demand for water on the Eastern Jumna and Upper Ganges Canals.

2. The returns, however, show an increase of 33,885 in acreage, and of Rs. 1,64,584 in assessments over the totals of last year. The total area irrigated during the season under review was 739,410 acres, or 7,825 acres more than the highest ever recorded, viz., in 1877, a year of drought, when the irrigated area exceeded the highest previously attained by 229,960 acres.

The following statement shows in detail the areas of the principal crops irrigated during the last four years:—

TABLE I.

| TOTAL . . . . .             | 655,641 | 700,180 | 706,026 | 739,410 |

Sugarcane has far exceeded the area of last year, and the increase is fairly distributed over all divisions. Rice is slightly under the average of the last three years. The chief falling off is on the Rohilkhand Canals.

The increase in food-grains is due to the large area under maize, which cultivators were compelled to irrigate owing to the break in the rains in September. The increase in this crop alone is 11,000 acres.

3. The items given below exhibit the aggregate differences in the chief crops as compared with the previous year:—

|                                   | 1881-82. | 1882-83. |
|-----------------------------------|----------|----------|
|                                   | Acres.   | Acres.   |
| Sugarcane . . . . .               | 164,569  | 197,978  |
| Food-grains &c . . . . .          | 135,159  | 150,784  |
| Dyes, fibres and others . . . . . | 406,297  | 390,648  |
| TOTAL . . . . .                   | 706,025  | 739,410  |

The rise in the acreage of sugarcane is alone equal to the total increase in the irrigated area on canals, whilst that in food-grains is counterbalanced by a decrease in dyes, &c. The falling off, however, in the latter is not due to any appreciable diminution of the area under indigo, the total under which is 316,903 acres against 319,040 acres last year.

4. Table II compares the irrigated areas of the two years, 1881 and 1882, by canals :—

The increase on the Upper Ganges Canal is in the four upper divisions, viz., the Northern, Meerut, Anúpshahr and Bulandshahr, which, in round numbers, have extended their irrigation by 8,000, 17,000, 5,000, and 10,000 acres, respectively, over the figures of last year.

On the Lower Ganges Canal the falling off is entirely in the two old divisions, the Cawnpore and Etawah, owing to short supply in the river in the early part of the season. The new divisions taken by themselves show a slight increase, 74,800 acres against 66,527; and this might have been greater had there been more water available for the tail portions.

The principal crops in these new divisions compare as follows :—

| Crops.       | 1880.         |               | 1881.         |        | 1882.  |        |
|--------------|---------------|---------------|---------------|--------|--------|--------|
|              | Acres.        | Acres.        | Acres.        | Acres. | Acres. | Acres. |

| Others       | 11,587        | 7,770         | 8,555         | ...    | ...    | ...    |
| TOTAL | 28,717 | 66,527 | 74,800 |        |        |        |

This clearly shows that the tendency is for sugarcane and indigo to increase. Cotton apparently is unable to obtain a footing.

There is a slight falling off on the Agra Canal, the decrease being about equal to that in cotton alone. There is, however, an increase in sugarcane, but almost the same decrease in indigo.

On the Rohilkhand Canals there is a rise in sugarcane and a falling off in rice, and, on the whole, there is a slight decrease. This is due to there being no demand for water for late kharif rice sowings.

On the Eastern Jumna Canal the increase is due to sugarcane.

5. Table III shows the assessment on account of occupier's rate for the last four years :—

SUPPLEMENT TO THE GAZETTE OF INDIA, APRIL 14, 1883.

The rate per acre is Rs 3·08, and is therefore better than that of last year, which was slightly under Rs 3. This is due to the increase in the better class of crops, notably sugarcane.

ORDER.—Ordered, that copies of this Resolution be submitted to the Government of India for information; that it be circulated as usual to other Governments and Departments; and that it be published in the Government Gazette.

REPORTS ON THE STATE OF THE SEASON AND PROSPECTS OF THE CROPS FOR THE WEEK ENDING THE 10th APRIL 1883.

GENERAL REMARKS.—Slight rain has fallen in a few districts in the Madras Presidency, in the Punjab, in British Burma, and in parts of Bengal proper. There has also been some rain in Mysore and Mercara and in Cachar. Elsewhere there has been no rain to report during the week.

The harvest of summer ragi, cholum, and paddy continues in nearly all the districts of the Madras Presidency and prospects are good, except in Madura, where the standing crops are reported to have failed in parts. In the Bombay Presidency the rabi harvest is over; sugarcane is being planted in parts; scarcity of drinking-water still prevails in some places in Dharwar. Locusts have reappeared in the Dekkan districts, and measures for their destruction have been commenced in Satara. In the Bengal Presidency the rabi harvest is for the most part over, with generally a fair outturn; rain is much wanted throughout Bengal proper for general ploughing and for sowing of autumn crops and also for standing crops in Orissa. The rabi harvest is in active progress throughout the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, and has been nearly completed in some places. Prospects are good; but rain is wanted in Kumaun for late rabi and for kharif sowings. Harvest operations have commenced in two districts of the Punjab, and prospects are generally good. In the Central Provinces harvest prospects are good, and in one district the rabi outturn is reported to be above the average. In Assam ploughing and sowing is reported to be in progress. In Mysore and Coorg paddy and sugarcane has been more or less harvested in all districts, and in the Nizam's territories reaping is still in progress. In the Central India States and in Rajputana the harvest is in progress and prospects are good.
